COOKIES POLICY

Cookies are files that are downloaded on your computer when you access certain website.
Cookies allow a website to, among others, store and recover information on a user's or computer's browsing habits and, depending on the information they contain and how it is used by the equipment, can be used to recognize the user. The user's browser stores cookies on the hard disk only during the current session, occupying minimal space and without damaging the computer. Cookies do not contain any kind of specific personal information, and most of them are erased from the hard disk when you close your browser (session cookies).
Most browsers accept cookies as standard and, independently of them, the security adjustments allow or block temporary or saved cookies.

Without your express consent – by activating cookies on your browser – RESTAURANT SANTA CLARA will not link the saved date in cookies with your personal data provided at the time of registration or purchase.
What types of cookies does this website use?
- Technical cookies: These are cookies which allow the user to browse a website, platform or application and to use the different options or services it offers, such as controlling data traffic and communication, identifying the session, access restricted access areas, remembers elements that make up an order, completing a purchase process, requesting registration or participation in an event, using security elements while browsing, storing content for the dissemination of videos or sound or sharing content on social networks.
-Analysis cookies: These are cookies processed either by us or by third parties that allow us to quantify the number of users and thus carry out the measurement and statistical analysis of the use made by users of the service offered. To do so, the user's browsing of our website is analyzed in order to improve the products or services we offer.
- Behavioral advertising cookies: These are cookies that permit the most efficient management possible of any advertising spaces that the publisher has included in a website, application or platform from which the requested service is provided. These cookies store information on the users' behavior obtained through continued observation of their browsing habits, which makes it possible to develop a specific profile to display advertising accordingly.

Third-party cookies: The RESTAURANT SANTA CLARA website may use the services of third parties who, on behalf of RESTAURANT SANTA CLARA, gather information for statistical purposes on the use of the website by the user and for the provision of other services related to the website's activity and other Internet services.

In particular, this website uses Google Analytics, an analytical web service provided by Google, Inc., domiciled in the United States of America, with its head office at 1600 Amphitheatre Parkway, Mountain View, California 94043. For the provision of these services, cookies are used that compile information, including the user's IP address, which will be transmitted, processed and stored by Google in the terms established on the website Google.com, including the possible transfer of such information to third parties for reasons of legal requirement or when such third parties process the information on behalf of Google.

By using this Website, the User expressly accepts the processing of the information gathered in the manner and for the purposes mentioned above. Furthermore, the User acknowledges that he/she is aware of the possibility of rejecting the processing of such data or information by rejecting the use of Cookies by selecting the appropriate setup for that purpose on his/her browser, although this option to block Cookies on his/her browser might not allow the User to make full use of all the Website functionalities.

You may permit, block or eliminate the cookies installed on your equipment by setting the browser options for your computer:
